STEEPLE
Chase

Join Storytrails as we walk you through Chennai's Christian history and stories, from the humble arrival of St.Thomas, to the British who left behind a cathedral of neo-gothic splendor.

In the year 52 A.D., a bearded man walked the sands of a beautiful beach in the port town of Mylapore. He spoke of a new God in a new land..... And left his footprints on the sands of time.

And there in lies the story of Christianity in India. Join us, as we let the story unfurl before you. A story of a man who doubted God's word, of men who changed the cityscape with their distinctive architecture, and men who brought in the skies of their homeland to prayer halls.

See for yourself those soaring steeples, simply begging the passerby to pause a moment, listen to the sonorous chimes of church bells, and observe the sumptuous stained glass, all reminiscent of different periods in History.

Discover new facets about the architects of Christianity in India - St. Thomas, the Portuguese, the English, the Armenians, the Scottish...
