

Before School Beckons, Nature Calls ...

Storytrails presents

Nature Calls

A 'far from the maddening crowd' overnighter that allows you to get up close and personal with mountains, molehills, stars and pretty much everything natural.

Distance yourself from the pressures of school, tuitions, projects, holiday homework, and go au natural.

Exclusively for teens who have been squeezed dry by exams and need the healing touch of open spaces.

Go with the flow and follow your heart, we give you space to just be. Refresh your mind, reawaken your spirit and make new friends.

Can you resist Nature's Call?
